IVth International Conference on
Molecular Materials
Montpellier - France

5-8 July 2010

Tentative Program

The IVth International Conference on Molecular Materials will be held in Montpellier, France from 5-8 July 2010.

Contributions are solicited in all areas of molecular materials, including :

- . Optics (luminescence, electro-luminescence, non-linear optics)
- . Electronics (nano-electronics, opto-electronics)
- . Magnetism (molecular magnets, photo-magnets, switchable materials)
- . Surface science (coating, thin films)
- . Molecular nanomaterials (nanoparticles, nano-objects, clusters)
- . Porous molecular materials
- . Simulation and modelling

Venue

The conference will be held at the CORUM Conference Centre in the heart of Montpellier, near historic sites, shops and restaurants. This nice place is easily reached by tramway from the Montpellier St-Roch train station, or by taxi or shuttle from the Montpellier Méditerranée Airport.
